

COOPERATIONS

The department has established international cooperation with the National University of Construction, Sevastopol Technical University, Kharkov Food and Trade University, Eurasian University named after Gumilev, and the University of Southern Kazakhstan. As a result of collaboration, doctoral dissertations, training manuals are being prepared and extended scientific sciences are organized at the department. Scientific articles of the department staff are published in partner magazines and participate in scientific conferences.